Members and those interested in joining Australian Lawyers for Human Rights are invited to attend the South Australian Branch meeting. We are very pleased to invite the Honourable Catherine Branson QC back to speak to us on this topic, particularly as a former President of the Human Rights Commission. Joining Ms Branson QC will be three young lawyers – Oliver, Esther and Holly - who will speak about their experiences during their respective internships at the AHRC.

Our members are cordially invited to stay to participate in the Special General Meeting and Annual General Meeting, which we will link up by teleconference. Members should have received the notice from the President of ALHR, Nathan Kennedy, but please do not hesitate to contact co-convenors Sean and Natalie at sa@alhr.org.au if you have any queries.

This branch meeting is a free event and the venue is wheelchair accessible. Attendance at this event may be counted towards MCPD for 1 unit.
