

FROM MAGNA CARTA TO THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS: 2015 AND BEYOND

An event to commemorate the 800th Anniversary of the Magna Carta and International Human Rights Day

The International Law, Human Rights and Public Law and Government Committees with the support of the Rule of Law Institute of Australia, invite you to an evening at Parliament House, hosted by the Hon. Shadow Attorney General Paul Lynch.

With a panel of eminent academics and professionals, including Professor Martin Krygier, Sarah Pritchard SC and Chris Ward SC, we will take a journey through time, from the days of the Magna Carta to the creation of the UN Declaration of Human Rights, to discuss the state of the rule of law and its interplay with human rights and freedoms in 2015.

The panel discussion will be followed by beverages and canapés, and a replica of the Magna Carta, which is commissioned to reside in the High Court of Australia from 2016, will also be on display.
