

Abortion law reform in NSW: a human rights perspective

Join Australian Lawyers for Human Rights for a special event on abortion law reform in NSW.

A range of speakers will discuss the different political, policy, legal and medical perspectives on abortion law reform in NSW, specifically the Abortion Law Reform (Miscellaneous Acts Amendment) Bill 2016 and Summary Offences Amendment (Safe Access to Reproductive Health Clinics) Bill 2016, which would decriminalise abortion and lead to the creation of exclusion zones at abortion clinics in NSW.

Tuesday 23 August 2016, 6–7:30pm

Kindly hosted by Dr Mehreen Faruqi MLC at the Jubilee Room, Parliament House, Macquarie Street, Sydney

Tickets available here

ALHR Members – $18/$15 concession and student

Non-Members – $25/$20 concession and student

Join ALHR today and save!

Speakers:

Dr Mehreen Faruqi MLC, NSW Greens – tabled the Abortion Law Reform (Miscellaneous Acts Amendment) Bill 2016

Penny Sharpe MLC, NSW Labor – tabled the Summary Offences Amendment (Safe Access to Reproductive Health Clinics) Bill 2016

Associate Professor Kirsten Black, Joint Head of Discipline, Obstetrics, Gynaecology and Neonatology, University of Sydney

Catherine Henry, Health and Medical Lawyer, Catherine Henry Partners

Chaired by Claire Hammerton, Chair, ALHR Women's and Girls' Rights Committee

All welcome – we hope that you can join us!