Please set out below a short bio, a brief summary of your reasons for wishing to be elected to the National Committee and describe what you believe you are able to contribute by reference to the relevant position description:

I have been involved with ALHR as a member since 2014 and as a Co/Chair of the Business and Human Rights (BHR) Subcommittee since 2019. In that capacity, I have been involved in ALHR's high-level advocacy in the area of business and human rights, in particular in relation to modern slavery and AusNCP, including through making submissions to the Australian government (both at the Cth and state levels), the UN organs, OECD and other inter governmental organisations. I have acted on behalf of ALHR as an expert witness at, inter alia, the Legislative Council Standing Committee on Social Issues of the NSW Parliament in 2019, as a Panel Member of the OECD Peer Review of AusNCP in 2021, and as an Observer at the UNGA High-level Meeting on the Global Plan of Action to Combat Trafficking in Persons in 2017.

I have over 20 years of professional experience in the area of human rights in the academic context and in practice at the international level, including over 100 publications for various audiences and some 40 presentations/keynotes at conferences and events worldwide. I have also taught human rights at higher education institutions in the UK, Australia, New Zealand, Cambodia, Canada, Germany and Slovenia. I'm currently a full Professor in Law and Society at The Open University (UK), and I have further academic affiliate positions at universities in Cambodia, Australia and New Zealand in relevant research centers. I also serve on the Modern Slavery Leaderships Advisory Group to the New Zealand Government, in which capacity I provide expertise and strategic advice on the development of modern slavery legislation in New Zealand, including on lessons learned in Australia.

I would like to be considered for the position of an 'Ordinary Members' as I believe that, based on my past and current experience and expertise, I can support the work of ALHR's National Committee by providing strategic and operational leadership to ensure that the organisation's values and mission are maintained and further enhanced.
