Please set out below a short bio, a brief summary of your reasons for wishing to be elected to the National Committee and describe what you believe you are able to contribute by reference to the relevant position description:

I have a long association with ALHR in leadership roles having served on the Executive Management Committee, National Committee and as Senior Chair of Business and Human Rights over a five year period. Having taken time away while acting as Counsel Assisting the Royal Commission into Defence and Veteran Suicide, I am pleased to renominate for a role as an Ordinary Member for Governance of the ALHR Executive Management Committee.

I am a human rights, public law and commercial law barrister with a special interest in international law, coronial inquests, inquiries, and complex commercial and criminal matters. I am a strong advocate for human rights, equality and justice, and undertakes regular work in public and private international law.

I was initially called to the Bar of England and Wales in 2011 and is a scholar of The Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn having been awarded the Peter Duffy Human Rights Scholarship and the Hardwick Scholarship. I was called to the NSW Bar and joined 6 St James Hall Chambers in September 2016.

I am the current Co-Vice-Chair, Women Barristers Forum, NSW Bar Association, sit on the Human Rights Committee, NSW Bar Association, the Management Committee, HIV/AIDS Legal Centre, HALC, the Australian Committee, International Coalition to End Transplant Abuse in China, ETAC.

If you have any queries about the roles and responsibilities of office bearers and committee members, contact the current ALHR executive on secretary@alhr.org.au.

Nominations must be delivered by email to: president@alhr.org.a
