Please set out below a short bio, a brief summary of your reasons for wishing to be elected to the National Committee and describe what you believe you are able to contribute by reference to the relevant position description:
I am a Senior Lawyer at the Australian Human Rights Commission, where I conduct inquiries into human rights breaches in immigration detention. I previously worked as a solicitor at Redfern Legal Centre, in the police accountability and administrative law team. Prior to this, I worked in civil litigation, with a focus on intentional torts and historical child sex abuse matters. I have also had various legal roles overseas including at the AIRE centre, providing casework and advice in relation to human rights matters in Europe, and at a death penalty defence office in Mississippi. I nominate for Ordinary Member for Governance as I am eager to contribute to ALHR's human rights advocacy on a national level and support the internal governance and strategic direction of the organisation.
