nominate for the position of:
Ordinary Member for Governance	(President, Treasurer, Secretary, Ordinary Member) of the National Committee of Australian Lawyers for Human Rights Incorporated.
Signed by nominator (may be nominee)  Date: 18/08/24
Please set out below a short bio, a brief summary of your reasons for wishing to be elected to the National Committee and describe what you believe you are able to contribute by reference to the relevant position description:
Short Bio: Claudia is a dedicated solicitor and human rights advocate with a strong commitment to social justice and empowering marginalised communities. Claudia currently works at the Financial Rights Legal Centre providing free legal advice in the areas of credit and debt and insurance law. Outside of work, Claudia volunteers with the Illawarra Legal Centre and is a member of the NSW Law Society's Human Rights and Ethics Committees. Claudia is pursuing her Master of Laws (LLM) with a specialisation in Human Rights from the University of London, aiming to enhance her knowledge and provide unparalleled advice to her clients. Brief Summary: My decision to seek election to the National Committee is driven by a desire to amplify the voices of marginalized groups and to further the cause of social justice on a broader scale. As someone deeply engaged in both the legal and community sectors, I am committed to advocating for systemic change that promotes equity and human rights. Being part of the National Committee would allow me to contribute my skills, knowledge, and passion to a platform that aligns with my values and aspirations. With my background in human rights law and my experience working with diverse communities, I bring a unique perspective to the National Committee. My work has equipped me with a deep understanding of the challenges faced by marginalised populations, and my academic pursuits have strengthened my ability to navigate complex legal and policy frameworks. I am confident in my ability to contribute to strategic discussions, policy development, and advocacy efforts that align with the Committee's mission. Additionally, my experience in various leadership roles within the legal profession positions me well to offer insights into ethical governance and to promote initiatives that advance social justice.
